Immediate and long-term results. There would be, two goal-oriented sessions each day taught by college level coaches. Morning sessions test and improve your individual skills. You will be challenged to showcase your work ethic and your capacity to improve. Afternoon Sessions use a tournament format to teach game tactics on the full field and in small sided games. College coaches evaluate your tactical awareness, your toughness, your impact on teammates, and your overall contribution to the game.

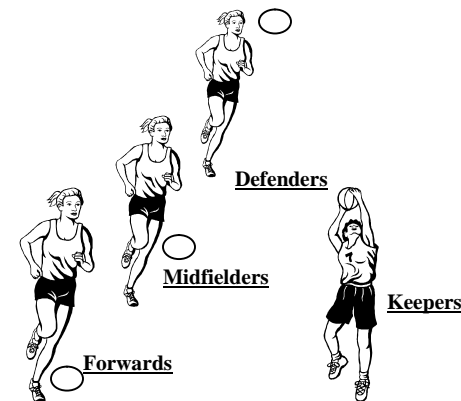

Only the French-Tech Showcase Camp teaches “The Absolute Instant Improvement Technique.” Coach Gaspard d'Alexis teaches you how to do it right in a flash and how to perform at your highest level in game after game.
