

Spanish to English translation

Black Omega friendly exchange win

Omega Team in Action Black / Source: www.omegasc.com

Tuesday, July 26, 2011:: 10:22 a.m.

4-3

SAN CRISTOBAL. The football team won 4-3 Omega Black women's team to the national under-17 in a series of blanks started last Sunday at the San Cristobal Project Goal.

The Dominicans start it with the first goal in the 15 minute of Cheila del Carmen Reyes, but on 22 minutes, Andra Iogualo in marker Davila, Yessica Alcantara 44, returned to give an advantage to the national team, but an equally careless marker when Adkison Audrey minuti 45, tied the game again.

In the second half Cheila del Carmen Reyes returned to give an advantage to French nationals, but the minute Farella scored 50, then Chelsea Morton was the 4th goal to give the victory (4-3) to visitantes in this first game.

Tuesday is said to play on selectional second game with the national under-17, in San Crsitobal Goal project.

Osiris Guzman, president of the Dominican Federation of Football (Fedofútbol), after the match said that he had seen a nice proceeds in the Dominican girls who faced the Omega Young Black, from Kansas City, United States, this meeting of blanks and have the support of Orange Dominicana companies, Coca-Cola, Powerade, Brugal, Miderec and Co & A, Technical and Associates (TIAS).

You will play games including the series, which will take place on 28, 30 and 31 this month, three are against the U-20 national team preparing to attend the women's world pre be held in Vancouver, Canada from 19 to 29 January.

Dominicans teams looking to repeat past triumphs in the playoffs against Dominica, Bermuda and Trinidad and Tobago, under the direction of technicians and Rufino Sotolongo Stanley Robinson, with the aim of continuing the process of preparation ahead of the Women's Olympic Qualifiers at held in Canada next year.

Author: Leonardo Reyes

Source: Angel Sanchez